CATALOGUS

variorum Librorum Anglo-Latinorum
Celeberrimæ Bibliothecæ,

Rev. Doct. Viri D. EDVARDI CARTER,
Archi-Diaconi S. Albani Nuperime Defuncti.

Quorum Auctio habenda est in Ædibus Carterianis apud Oppidum Vulgò dictum St. Albans
5 Die August. 1689.

Per Edvardum Millingtonum, Bibliop. Londin.

atalogues are distributed by Mr. William Miller at the Acorn in St. Paul's Church-Yard. Mr. Wilkinson at the Black-Boy in Fleetstreet. And from the Dwelling-House of Mrs. Carter in St. Albans, to all Gentlemen, &c. that please to send or call for them. 1689.

To the READER.

THis Catalogue contains the entire Collection of Books of the Celebrated Library of the Reverend and Learned Mr. Edward Carter (late of St. Albans) which considered together, without flattery, may be truly said to be the best, and most useful for their Number that hath hitherto, or perhaps be exposed hereafter to Sale by Auction. The knowledge I had of this worthy Person, both as to his Temper, and his extraordinary love of Learning, and of the and most beautiful Copies of the most valuable Books, prompts me to publish the modest Character of Him and Them; an instance of which might be given of the prudence of his Choice, and generosity of his Mind, in the purchase of that Edition of St. Chrysostom, Greek and Latin, published by Franco-Duclos of the large Paper, (not probably to be parallel'd) with others of considerable price, qualified with all the Requisites that may possibly prevail upon the Minds of the Learned and Studious, viz. intrinsic Worth, good Editions, and extraordinary Binding: Which having hinted, I leave the gentle and candid Reader to judge for themselves; inviting them to the View, as also to the Sale, the Time and Place below assigned, Subscribing my self, as I profess to be, your Friend and Servant in the Matters of Learning,

Edward Millington

This Sale will begin on Monday the 5th day of August, 1689. at Mrs. Carters House in St. Albans, at Two of the Clock exactly in the Afternoon, Continuing to Seven in the Morning, and from nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from two to Seven in the Evening the remaining Days till all are sold.

Conditions of Sale.

- I. That he who bids most is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, which the Court cannot decide, then the Book or Books shall forthwith be exposed to Sale again.
- II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.
- III. That the Money for the Book or Books so bought, is to be pay'd by the Buyer within a Fortnight after the Auction is ended, at the place where they are Sold; where, upon Payment thereof, the Book or Books shall be delivered for the Fortnight aforesaid.
- IIII. The Books will be exposed to view Two days before the Sale, from nine in the Morning to twelve, and from two to six in the Evening, at the abovementioned place; which is the rather desired, the Books being richly Bound; many of which are of the Large Paper, extremely Entertaining to the beholders.
